Walker Crips appoints Scott Heslin to its Financial Planning division

Walker Crips Group plc, the national investment, financial planning and FinTech company has appointed Scott Heslin, an experienced financial planner to the firm's financial planning division.

Scott Heslin joins the financial planning division (Walker Crips Wealth Management) as Associate Director from Brewin Dolphin based in Cambridge, where he held the position of Assistant Director - Financial Planning. Scott has 15 years' experience in financial services, both domestically and internationally, holding the position of International Wealth Manager at HSBC in the United Arab Emirates and the Channel Islands, in addition to being a Financial Planner at Tilney in Cambridge.

In his new role at Walker Crips Wealth Management, Scott will be undertaking assignments across a broad range of client requirements and objectives, while continuing to focus on specialisms within investment planning, retirement planning, IHT strategy & mitigation and tax-led investment planning.

Walker Crips Wealth Management also recently announced the appointment of Nick Lee and Charles Cavendish to its new Southampton office as Regional Director and Associate Director respectively.

Dominic Martin, Managing Director of Walker Crips Wealth Management says:

"I would like to welcome Scott to Walker Crips Wealth Management and look forward to working with him. Scott has many years of experience as a financial planner, and we are excited to be expanding Walker Crips Wealth Management's footprint in East Anglia."

Scott Heslin, Associate Director at Walker Crips Wealth Management, says:

"Joining Walker Crips Wealth Management represents a stellar opportunity to further develop my career and build upon my reputation within the industry and, most importantly, to be able to continue to deliver professional financial planning advice to the clients I serve."
