

PRESS RELEASE
21 February 2022

Walker Crips Wealth Management opens new Solent office

Walker Crips Group plc, the national investment, wealth management and FinTech group, has opened its new Solent office. The new branch is located in Fareham, Hampshire, and services the South of England. It opened its doors in early February 2022 and will continue to expand Walker Crips' financial planning reach into the South, which is a priority market for the firm.

Dominic Martin, Managing Director of Walker Crips Wealth Management says:

"The Walker Crips Wealth Management Division is going from strength to strength, and we're excited to open our new Solent office.

"The opening of the branch in February 2022 is a continuation of our ambitious growth plans in the financial planning market, and the team's depth and wealth of experience will, without doubt, further advance our service offering to our clients. Nick Lee and Charles Cavendish, our local team of Independent Chartered Financial Planners, have 35 years of experience between them and are well placed to support our current and future clients as the team grows in the coming years."

Nick Lee, Regional Director at Walker Crips Wealth Management, says:

"We were delighted to join Walker Crips Wealth Management in May 2021, and we are excited to take the next step in opening our new office to service the South of England.

"Our adviser team, supported by Kris Watts and Jasmine Ng, have worked together for over a decade. Devotion to client service is at the core of our offering, and I look forward to working alongside our skilled and very experienced team as the company's journey gains further momentum across the country."
